Blockquote

Blockquote sample

The blockquote element represents content that is quoted from another source, optionally with a citation which must be within a `footer` or `cite` element, and optionally with in-line changes such as annotations and abbreviations.

Blockquote without attribution

> Tiam, ad mint andaepu dandae nostion secatur sequo quae.
> Note that you can use Markdown syntax within a blockquote.

Blockquote with attribution

> Don't communicate by sharing memory, share memory by communicating. > â€" <cite>Rob Pike[^1]</cite>

[^1]: The above quote is excerpted from Rob Pike's talk during Gopherfest, November 18, 2015.

Blockquote Hard

Normal quote:
{{< blockquote >}}
  This is a simple quote.
{{< /blockquote >}}

Quote with author
{{< blockquote author="Author2" >}}
  This is a quote with only an Author named Author2.
{{< /blockquote >}}

Quote with author and source
{{< blockquote author="Author3" source="Source" >}}
  This is a quote from Author3 and source "source."
{{< /blockquote >}}

Quote with author and link
{{< blockquote author="Author4" link="https://www.google.com" >}}
  This is a quote from Author4 and links to https://www.google.com.
{{< /blockquote >}}

Quote with author, link and title
{{< blockquote author="Author5" link="https://www.google.com" title="Google" >}}
  This is a quote from Author5 and links to https://www.google.com with title "Google."
{{< /blockquote >}}

Quote with author and a link longer than 32 characters, string is first cut at 32 characters then everything after the last forward slash is removed {{< blockquote author="Author6" link="https://twitter.com/CryptoGangsta/status/716427930126196737" >}}
  This is a quote from Author5 and links to https://twitter.com/CryptoGangsta/status/716427930126196737 which is longer than 32 characters.

And this is a new line in the quote with the HTML br tag.
{{< /blockquote >}}
